Texol Multisyn™ 0W-30

Super high performance synthetic engine lubricant

Product description

Texol Multisyn™ 0W-30 is a super high performance synthetic, high ash, high TBN engine lubricant designed for use in gasoline and diesel passenger cars and light duty diesel vans. Texol Multisyn™ 0W-30 meets the latest ACEA A5/B5 specification and a number of critical OEM requirements.

Texol Multisyn™ 0W-30 is formulated with premium base oils in combination with an advanced additive package and a high performance viscosity improver to offer improved fuel economy with low temperature engine protection and higher lubricant durability.

Customer benefits

- Especially designed to provide enhanced fuel economy in vehicles where 0W-30 engine lubricants are recommended
- Advanced keep-clean additive package offers reliable oxidation control and acid neutralisation, helping extend engine life
- Super high performance formulation promotes robust engine wear protection under severe operating conditions
- Advanced synthetic lubricant formulation offers optimum engine uptime throughout extended drain service life
- Premium base oil and advanced additive combination promotes durable TBN retention and viscosity increase control
- Low temperature fluidity aids rapid lubricant circulation at cold start-ups, and offers increased protection where biodiesel is used

Applications

- Texol Multisyn™ 0W-30 is suitable for use in gasoline and diesel passenger cars and light duty diesel vans
